

Around the Square

By TOMMY-ANN MILLER

As long as it's the pioneer days of Sierra Madre we're celebrating, why isn't a Sierra Madreen (and there are still quite a few pioneer families here) going to be grand marshal of the parade instead of professional entertainers who probably don't know or care about our town and its history?

Seems like we're importing a lot of outside "color" when most of the color ought to be local.

WHILE compiling information to be printed on the Friends of the Library's unique Art Tour tickets, the exhibits committee asked each artist for an autobiographical blurb. Local sculptor, Howard Whalen, wrote: "Howard Whalen—owner of world's largest collection of Howard Whalen sculpture."

From now until Tour time, some of Howard's work is on display at the library.

TOUR TALK. In addition to touring Howard's studio, the $1.50 ticket (available from Bill Palmer at the Paint and Wallpaper store) entitles you to visit the studios of Joan Harness, potter; Frank Rohloff, furniture designer; Wallis-Wiley, stained glass windows, and Walter Askins, painter.

BACK TO BAY. Cookie Miller heads back to Berkeley tomorrow after six weeks with her sister, Mavis Sheets of N. Auburn. On the weekend, Ken and Mavis took Cookie to the Ensenada and the San Diego Zoo—stopping off at the Laguna Beach cliff dwelling of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Blaisdell (Mrs. B. is the former Phyllis Buchanan of Woodland Drive).

INCENTIVE PREVENTIVE. Overheard in Kindergarten Department: "Next winter, Mother says I get to take BALLET LESSONS!—if I stop sucking my thumb."

BRING BOOKS! Book donations for the Friends' annual Book Sale at the Library (May 12, 13, 14) are still needed—according to Friends' President Helen Loomis.

Also, don't miss the special sale day (May 12) for Sierra Madreens only (a dandy chance to snoop about for first editions, etc.). Added feature this year: a teenage table outdoors, with used comics and records for the younger trade.

SPRING SKI. Sierra Madreens skiing at Mammoth last weekend—and enjoying a spring bonus fall of four fresh inches of snow: Kurt and Pat Ferber, Miner and Diane Harkness and George McRoberts.

NOTE FROM Francesca Fair, alerting radio listeners to her KPPC broadcasts at 10 o'clock Sunday mornings, particularly to her Mother's Day poetry offerings. Miss Fair has visited here often at the home of Deedle Armstrong (maker of tasty grapefruit peel for kaffe-kuchen, etc.).

CURSIVE CURSE. Clerks at Roess Market helped a bemuddled lady shopper to read her own handwriting, recently. Seems she came in with her grocery list and couldn't decipher one item she'd written. "Pants?" she puzzled. "Parts?—WHAT do you suppose I want?"

The clerks gave a glancing guess: "Peanuts?" It was.

Lions Club Hears Condylis Stories

Stories of the radio world, mostly humorous, were recited by Paul Condylis, partner of Bob Grant in KNX's comedy team, before the meeting of the Sierra Madre Lions Club at the Pink and White Cafe.

Grant and Condylis are grand marshals for the Pioneer Days Parade Saturday. The two-day celebration begins tomorrow. President William M. Waite presided at the meeting which was largely attended.

MAKING IT OFFICIAL—Mayor Webster W. Vannier signs proclamation officially designating Friday and Saturday, this week, as Pioneer Days as Frank B. Barbour, parade chairman for the Lions Club, staging the celebration, looks on.

Three Groups Meet

Six-Year Park Plan, 3 Budgets Discussed

The overall, concrete six-year Sierra Madre Park Capital Improvement Project calculated to make the park one of the most useful and advantageous recreational spots for family enjoyment in the San Gabriel Valley, was presented to City Council at a recreational budget meeting with the School Board and City Parks and Recreation Commission in City Council Chambers, City Hall, last Thursday night. Ultimate decision will be up to City Council.

At the same time, the recreation budget which the city and School Board share equally, and the park budget defrayed entirely by the city, were each presented by the Parks and Recreation Commission. Margaret Anthony, of the commission, presided.

THE RECREATION budget totals $21,026. Anticipated income of $10,524 would shave this to $10,502. City and School Board would share this at $5,251 each. The parks budget calls for $23,134, with the city shouldering the entire amount. This expense has nothing to do with the six-year plan, and is met through the 15-cent tax.

Estimated overall cost of the six-year plan is $125,000, but an estimated $65,000 for a nine-hole, seven and one-half acre pitch-and-putt golf course would be defrayed through contract with a private concessionaire who would construct and operate the course.

HERE THE CITY should reap a profit from the yearly rental. At the same time this $65,000 from the concessionaire would reduce the city's cost of the improvement to $60,256, or at a rate of $10,000 a year for the six years.

The six-year plan was devised by a special committee of the Parks and Recreation Commission including Art C. Albertson, George T. Fleming and James F. Abernethy, assisted by Recreation Director David H. Sommers and Assistant City Administrator Tom Butch. In addition to the golf course, the rest of the improvements would include the following:

- NORTHWEST AREA:
1—Three concrete, fenced and lighted tennis courts.
2—Three dual-purpose backstops for practicing tennis or hand ball.
3—A large 100' x 85' concrete play area used for outdoor dances, roller skating and general court games.

S.M. News Praised By C.C. Directors

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday unanimously commended the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, under its new management, for its coverage of the news of this city, and its environs, the views editorially which it has expressed for the betterment of Sierra Madre, and recommended it to the merchants as a tip-top advertising medium.

The directors expressed complete faith in the proposed Sierra Madre Reporter project and voted to have an equal number of Sierra Madreens and professionals on its governing board. John Curtis, C. of C. president; Larry Lomax and Emile Smith were named a committee to arrange this. The directors authorized

R. R. Hartman Celebrates His 50th Anniversary As Pharmacist In Sierra Madre

Fifty years a pharmacist in Sierra Madre, much of that time a pharmacy owner, steeped in the lore and traditions of his profession, is the admirable—and justifiably proud—record of Rudolph R. Hartman of the Hartman-Rexall Pharmacy at 29 N. Baldwin Ave.

R. R. Hartman

The iron-gray, brown-eyed Mr. Hartman observed the 50th anniversary of his career in pharmacy in Sierra Madre on May 5, observing that "it has been gratifying to serve the public—it has been a challenge and a district obligation to me. That has been my philosophy and it has worked out most satisfactory."

Born at Oxford, Mich., he was taken by his parents to Muskegon on the Lake Michigan West Coast when a few months old. His father, Franklin H. Hartman, operated a pharmacy in Muskegon for 13 years when the family removed to Santa Monica, Calif. For three years the family conducted a pharmacy there and at

'Be Friendly With a Book' Days Coming May 12, 13, 14

"Be Friendly With a Book!" There's a sock in this slogan for Sierra Madreens these May days, for it signifies the annual giving and selling of books under the auspices of the energetic and devoted members of the Friends of the Library.

The object is to benefit the beautiful and widely-used Sierra Madre Public Library at 440 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. As is usually the case in most cities the library always can use more good books. The books donated are sold and the proceeds devoted to purchase of new books.

THE SALE itself is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12, 13 and 14, at the library, with the first day, from 12 noon until 9 p. m., devoted solely to Sierra Madre residents.

Donation of books already is under way, according to Mrs. Catherine Sorensen of 233 Orange Grove, chairman of the annual event. Mrs. Helen P. Loomis, 1140 Hastings Ranch Dr., is president of the Friends of the Library. Mrs. Harry R. Snow, 310 E. Highland, is chairman of the Junior Friends of the Library who this year will have a sales booth of their own on the walk outside the library. Mrs. William A. Tweddie, 117 E. Grand View, is in charge of transporting the donated books to the library.

In charge of cataloguing are Mrs. Raymond D. Andrews, 692 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Mrs. Florence Petersen, 50 E. Alegria, and Mrs. Mae G. Wilts, 500 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

BOXES FOR receiving donated books, each bearing the slogan "Be Friendly With a Book," are in the following 18 places:

Shopping Bag, Roberts and Roess Markets, Simpson

Cleaners, Dr. D'Arcy, Southern California Edison, Sierra Madre Paint, Highland Liquor Store, Osti's Nursery, Royal Drug, Art's Pet Shop, First Western Bank and Trust Co., Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa Public Schools, St. Rita's School, Ascension School, Woman's Clubhouse and La Salle High School.

The Juniors in the booth outside the library, will sell books, records and comics. Boxes for the receipt of books were decorated by the Girl Scouts. Posters were made by school pupils and the Girl Scouts.

Fifty-eight units, including a bagpipe band, five other bandsbands, gay horsemen, with their saddles typifying the West and its indomitable spirit, with splendid, little 6-year-old Queen Marion Schwartz riding in regal splendor—these are just part of the bigger and better second annual Pioneer Jubilee Days celebration and parade Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The parade is part of the two-day Pioneer Jubilee Days celebration—staged under auspices of the Sierra Madre Lions Club, starting Friday with a Happyland Carnival and booths manned by Sierra Madre organizations on the grounds on W. Sierra Madre Blvd., adjacent to the Woman's Clubhouse.

WITH FRANK B. BARBOUR, Pioneer Days chairman, in charge, the procession will form in the streets opening onto N. Baldwin Ave. It will proceed south from Montecito through Kersting Court, passing the SIERRA MADRE NEWS offices and plant, west three blocks to the reviewing stand at Hermosa, thence west to its terminus at Lima. It is scheduled to move promptly at 10 o'clock.

Well forward will be the grand marshals, Bob Grant and Paul Condylis, KNX Radio funnymen, Chairman Barbour and his staff, the Caledonian Pipers Band of Monrovia, Mayor Webster W. Vannier and members of City Council, the equestrian judge Fred Wilkinson and Pioneer Queen Little Marian Schwartz flashing a dainty smile sure to win all. There will be numerous groups of maporettes and saileettes, including the "Downey Debs," the honorary grand marshal, Rollo Grover, astride his prize horse; floats including "Pioneers in Space," presented by the Sierra Engineering Co.; many mounted groups, Little League baseball players, Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts—even fire (continued on page 8)

WHAT A CUTIE for a queen. She'll reign over the Pioneer Day celebration this week, including the big parade—music, clowns, horsemen, six bands, "an every-thing." She's Marian Schwartz, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Schwartz of 257 E. Montecito. Marian has staged a courageous and remarkable comeback after having experienced a serious burning a year ago. Pipe that smile—it's dazzling and devastating?

S.M. School Annexation Step Upheld in Statement Issued by John H. Curtis

The possible annexation of the Sierra Madre School District to the Pasadena City School District raised through the recent report of Dr. Irving Melbo, dean of the School of Education, University of Southern California, has aroused widespread interest throughout Sierra Madre.

This is especially true following the recent 14 to 3 vote favoring annexation by the Citizens Educational Advisory Committee. The SIERRA MADRE NEWS is deeply indebted to John H. Curtis, president of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Advisory Committee, for the following exposition of his views on the subject:

Editor, Sierra Madre News:

A number of my friends have suggested that I write you a letter briefly describing my views on the Sierra Madre school situation, with respect to unification or possible annexation to the Pasadena District. Hence, this letter.

First of all, I must say that I consider myself a loyal Sierra Madreen where I have had my business and home for many years. I am proud of Sierra Madre's cultural attainments, its library and fine schools.

I have personally identified myself with the last two elections at which the people of Sierra Madre voted tax increases for the benefit of our schools. I worked for both increases. It was my firm conviction that if the schools needed the money they should have it, even though it increased taxes.

HOWEVER, in the present situation, we have a different choice. Because of the law recently passed by the State Legislature, Sierra Madre's honeymoon days are numbered. We will not much longer be able to send half our school grades—from the 7th to the 12th inclusive—to Pasadena, and retain our cherished identity as an independent school district.

This golden privilege will soon end. We will now be required to unify and build our own junior and senior high schools, or become affiliated with another district, preferably with Pasadena and preferably through annexation.

Our junior and senior high school students already attend Pasadena schools, junior students by contract and senior students because we are already a part of the Pasadena High School District, helping to build such buildings.

BUT IF the voters of Sierra Madre vote (by simple majority) to unify, they will then be called upon to approve a bond issue by two-thirds majority to meet the estimated

UP ON . . .

Hastings Hill

Representatives of the Hastings Ranch Telephone Improvement Association are out in force talking to their neighbors about the formal complaint planned by residents to get out of being served by the California Water and Telephone Co. Enthusiasm for the project is certainly high.

No matter where you go these days—bridge, club meetings, marketing, church—the principal topic of conversation is how good the chances are for ridding ourselves of this company they often refer to as the "Drip and Tinkle."

One of the best stories about the telephone problem concerns Bud Burke, an attorney and vice-chairman of the association, who was bringing members of his carpool up to date on developments as they were walking to their offices down in L.A. after parking the car. Bud says he guesses he was talking louder than he knew, because a lady walking behind him suddenly rushed ahead, grabbed him by the arm, with one hand, opened her purse with the other and said, "are you going to get us out of that water company? How much money do you need? I he forgot to ask the lady what to help."

Bud said he was so startled he forgot to ask the lady her name. But he refused her offer of money and told her members of the Association would be around to see her to "join up" if she lived in Hastings. And maybe they have by now.

The Cystic Fibrosis benefit "Spring Frolic" Sunday afternoon in the gardens of the Robert Freeman home was a rollicking success. The food was good, the gardens were beautifully in bloom, and female guests ran them a close second in color. There were some "little black" dresses there, but there were many white, blues and greens, plus orange and yellow and rosy pinks.

To get back to the white ones—Barbara Clark looked as though she'd stepped out of Harper's Bazaar. Her fitted bodice was of natural colored chiffon with an all-over pattern of white corded chiffon. The skirt was yards glaze, the bodice had that "peek-a-boo" look that re- of the white chiffon. At first quired a quick second glance. And you have to look twice these days to recognize your neighbors, so many of them are changing their hair colors. It surely keeps life from becoming dull.

Some of the husbands hadn't been warned until the last minute that they were going to a fashion show, but they bore up nobly, particularly applauded such numbers as black lace bathing suit, which must be for mid-night swimming. After the show and dinner the jazz orchestra gotten together hurriedly performed in a little jam session. Dr. Freeman sat in with his bango, and played with such vigor he broke a string. A good party.

EMILY EMBREE, one of Sierra Madre's florists, did a magnificent job of coaching the girls in the making of table bouquets of spring flowers. Her contribution of time and equipment did worlds toward making the party a pretty one.

JO WELLS, with the help of her various chairmen, did a marvelous job of getting done—and done nicely, so that all those in attendance did nothing but enjoy themselves. Rumor has it that the Guild will make more on this benefit than any in the past. It is sincerely hoped so since the research program in the disease needs every "buck" it can get.

HIGHLIGHT of the affair for the gals present was when Forest Paxson was pressed into service to model a paisley summer tuxedo coat. He did it so well you'd have thought he was a professional.

JOHN DUBOIS, acting as master of ceremonies for the drawing of door-prizes and the $500, added merriment to the program. Incidentally, Betty and Curtis Wyatt were the couple with the lucky number that won the $500. Belle Patch had sold the winning ticket so she and Jack shared a bottle of champagne with the Wyatts in celebration of their "wind-fall."

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

I used to feel so secure in my health; knew that if I stayed out of drafts and changed my clothes when I got my feet wet that I wouldn't have to worry about a common cold. Yes, sir, I took good care of myself.

Now you see me as a palpitating fearful mess of humanity. I have just had all of the props knocked out from under me. I read in the paper that a common cold can be caused by 70 different viruses.

I go around looking to the right and the left waiting to be attacked by one or more of the sneaky little "virees."

I ask you, what chance has a body got to put up with that kind of germ warfare? Why there might be one of them just sitting on the end of your nose right now. Watch out. Ooops, it got you . . . Ahchewww!"

WHEN Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stoller of Barhite have a party, they don't fool around with just a few people. Last Saturday night they had a farewell party for Rear Admiral E. Conklin (ret.) and Mr. Chris Valencia, who are leaving this week for Woomera, Australia, where the preliminary work will be started in the installation of World Tracking Nets.

There were 56 guests in addition to the guests of honor. Mrs. Stoller had carried out the entire theme of the party in what she termed as "deserted outpost Australian."

She had a whimsical menu posted along with many travel posters to remind people of the goal. Needless to say, the party was a crashing success.

THE RED ROBIN farm of Old House Rd. that has long stood as a landmark is now just the Red Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim E. Roblin moved last week to their home at 1700 E. California Ave. Their lovely early American farm style home will soon go on the market. The entire home has been authentically restored and brings many memories to some of the original inhabitants on the hill.

FREDERICK A. POTRUCH of Vosburg was honored by his wife and several friends last week on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. Mrs. Potruch served a buffet dinner. Guests were Messrs. Mott, Dixon Chubbicks, Frances McNamara, Maurice Anderson, Richard Gravier, Mrs. Kathleen Krauel, Mr. Carl Enderward and Mr. Ernest M. Duke.

I THINK a word of gratitude should be extended to the three hostesses who so graciously offered their homes for the benefit of the Altadena Guild of the Huntington Memorial Hospital. They were Mrs. R. T. Knapp of Country Lane, Mrs. Rand Lewis of Mesaloe Lane, and Mrs. Albert Richards of Meyerloa Lane. I haven't seen that many women afoot in many a day in spite of the rainy weather. The homes were lovely and I wouldn't have missed it for the world.

MR. AND MRS. George Amthor of Barhite have been in a whirl showing Mrs. Amthor's sister and brother-in-law the sights of the city, which by the way included a big league ball game.

There are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thraikill of San Antonio, Tex.

MR. AND MRS. George Clark of Old House Rd. became parents of a baby daughter April 24. The baby weighed in at St. Luke Hospital at 6 pounds, 4 ounces and only 18 inches long. She will be called Katherine Marie. She has four sisters, Susie, Judy, Molly and Peggy, and her brother is Tony.

THE AIKMAN Armstrongs of Fairpoint entertained Mr. and Mrs. Colvin Doughty, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Styron and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phillips at a dinner and bridge party last Saturday evening.

LAST MINUTE preparations are being made for the "Spring Ball" scheduled for Saturday in the garden of the Pasadena home of Dr. and Mrs. Morris Furman and sponsored by Regina Trilling Chapter (Pasadena), Women's American ORT. Meeting to wrap door prizes are, from left, Mrs. William H. Fox, food chairman for the party, Mrs. Gustave B. Linden, press chairman, and Mrs. Stanley Pomerantz, president. Proceeds from the event will be used toward the purchase of machinery and materials for ORT's 600 schools in 20 countries on five continents.

Ranch Little League Plans Ceremonies

Opening ceremonies for Hastings Ranch Little League will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in Hamilton Park. All players will be in uniform and participate in a continuous game.

The day's festivities will also include the drawing of prize tickets as well many other surprises. All friends of Little League are urged to attend.

Little League Family Night will be held Monday night, at 8:30, in Hale School Auditorium — Paloma and Aladena, just beyond the Naval Training Center.

At this time, the Los Angeles Dodgers World Series color film, with Vince Scully narrating, will be shown. Experts who have seen this film, claim it to be the finest of its kind ever to be filmed. All friends of Little League are invited to attend. The film only runs for a half hour.

Musical Comedy Sponsored By Sisterhood

A musical comedy, "The Cohen Mutiny," will be presented at John Marshall Junior High School on Saturday, May 14 at 8:30 p.m.

The show, sponsored by the sisterhood of the Pasadena Jewish Temple and Center, has been in rehearsal for several months with a cast of talented individuals, many of whom have theatrical backgrounds.

Mrs. Syd Perlin, 3840 Shadow Grove, director, is being assisted by Edward Schwartz and Mrs. Harry Pritzker. The list of credits include Dr. Michael Perlin, Mrs. Louis Rudin, Mr. Norman Chase, Mrs. Leon Levinson, Mr. Bill Raffeld, Pasadena Playhouse choreographer, Manny Harmon and his orchestra.

The public is invited. Tickets are available at the Temple office or by contacting Jerry Golden at SYcamore 7-6174.

R. G. B. Aids Schedule Party May 18

R.G.B. Aids, a group of 12 women from various sections of San Gabriel Valley, working for the City of Hope, ing for the City of Hope, have planned their annual spring fashion show and luncheon for May 18 at Eaton's Santa Anita Restaurant, beginning at 12 noon. The fashion show will be presented by the Glad Rags Women's shop in Arcadia. All proceeds will be given to the leukemia wing at City of Hope.

All those wishing to attend are cordially invited and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Milton Honowitz, ELgin 5-3219; Mrs. Sam Finkelstein, ELgin 5-2691; Mrs. Dave Hermanson, Hillcrest 7-9202 or Mrs. Harvey Mendel, Hillcrest 6-1379.

Provisionals Entertain Club Juniors

It was turn about at the Shakespeare Club juniors meeting last night as the program committee relaxed and let the provisional members present the annual pot luck dinner.

Mrs. Robert Cushman presided at the business meeting. Her last meeting as "Madam President," after which the provisionals put on a fashion show.

Modeling spring and summer fashions, were Mesdames John M. Clark, William K. Davis, Cecil Hicks Jr., John E. Robinson, Robert Cooper, Martin Stornie, and Robert L. Paul who was in charge of the show.

The fashions featured and more greatly admired were after-five dresses that would be appropriate for the Juniors' Mother-Daughter Banquet and June dance. Mrs. William Reitzel was chairman for the evening.

Trinity Guild Will Hear Book Reviews May 17

Muriel Helfenbein will review books for members of the Woman's Guild of Trinity Presbyterian Church at their monthly luncheon at the church May 17. Mrs. Helfenbein, representing Roman's, says she reads 15 books a month.

May 10 to be Trinity Night At Playhouse

The Pulitzer Prize winning musical, with music by George Gershwin has a political background of special interest at present. Among those of the cast are Billy Gilbert, George Wallace, Sally Fraser and Barbara Perry.

Bill Davis and Lou Jennings are in charge of tickets for the evening's performance, which will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Trinity Men also have another special event planned for this month, their annual gold tournament May 25 at the Twin Lakes course in El Monte.

Sierra-Hastings Camp Fire Log

Playful Blue Birds, second graders from Eugene Field school, enjoyed an afternoon and evening they'll long remember when they were guests of Skipper Frank and appeared on TV last week.

Not only did they tour the studios and learn how shows are produced, they also were introduced to the TV audience while many of their friends here in Hastings were watching open-mouthed. Laurie Veale and Valerie Wright were interviewed by Skipper Frank, as was kindergarten Scott Zinsmeyer, who just went along because his big sister, Diane, was in the group.

Other children appearing were Ellen Gordon, Cindy Hyde, Frances Kingsley and Mikulka. Their leaders are Mrs. Gerald Wright and Mrs. John Veale. After the show the girls were given a Hollywood tour.

Former Resident, Mrs. Pennock, Dies

Imoe M. Pennock, 59, former Sierra Madre resident, passed away April 27 at her home at 923 E. Cypress, Glendora. A native of Iowa, Mrs. Pennock came to California 38 years ago and had been active with her husband in the operation of Pennock's Auto Parts Store in Azusa.

Surviving are her husband, Charles; sons, Malcolm D. of San Diego and Deane O. of Glendora; brother, Edwin Anderson of Iowa; sisters, Mrs. Ed Anderson and Mrs. Seth Albin of Iowa, and Mrs. N. P. Sorensen of Minnesota.

Funeral services were Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Noakes Mortuary Chapel in Glendora. The Rev. Edward E. Vincent officiated. Interment followed at Oakdale Memorial Park.

Postal Receipts Up 21 Per Cent

Sierra Madre's postal receipts continue to mount steadily, according to figures for March as announced by Postmaster Charles E. Louk and Assistant Postmaster Guy Mossi.

Receipts for April totaled $15,767.90, compared to $13,026.39 for the corresponding month in 1959. This $2,741.51 gain represents an increase of 21 per cent.

Curtis Statement on Schools

cost of providing junior and senior high school buildings of approximately $3,000,000.

Even if Sierra Madre voters did approve this, this city, with its $16,146,000 worth of tax assessed property, has a school bonding limit of $1,614,000, which would be far short of providing the required money for necessary new buildings, especially considering our present bonded indebtedness of $515,000 elementary and an estimated $425,000—our share of high school bonds.

We would thus be forced to borrow some $2,000,000 from the state to complete the job.

We are not even assured that this could be done, since funds are generally available to impoverished districts only, which have no other means of providing educational facilities. Even though we voted for unification, if we failed to pass the bond issue, or failed to obtain additional funds otherwise, our plans for unification would fail.

PASADENA Elementary and High School District, on the other hand, with its $380,216,000 worth of tax assessed property, has a bonding capacity of $38,021,000 and total existing bonded indebtedness of only $16,445,000, leaving an untouched balance of $21,576,000, which is indeed ample to defray the costs of constructing any needed additional elementary and high school buildings. It is estimated that the contemplated new high school building there would not cost more than $10,000,000 at the very outside.

In relation to the above it should be borne in mind that Sierra Madre has only $14,000 worth of assessed property for each of its pupils, while Pasadena, with its bigger business districts and greater industrial areas, has $17,000 in such property for each of its pupils.

This difference is noticeably reflected in the Pasadena Elementary School tax rate of $1.60 plus, compared to Sierra Madre's rate of $1.87.

This difference will undoubtedly become greater with passing time, considering Sierra Madre's industrial limitations. However, if the voters of Sierra Madre should approve the bond issue, as fantastic as such action would be, the cost of retiring these bonds and cost of paying interest on borrowed money and paying it back, would add greatly to our already high tax load. More than that, this new, necessarily high tax load would be saddled on fewer taxpayers, because of the required acquisition of some 30 acres of land, now improved and now paying taxes, which would then be removed from tax roles, once more sending tax rates upward.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to project accurately what our new tax rates would be, should we attempt unification, but it is indeed utter folly to think for a moment that it would not be far higher than even at present, and indeed much higher than it would be if we were to join with Pasadena.

If I thought that our becoming annexed to the Pasadena School District would result in the slightest lowering of our educational standards, I would hesitate to vote for it, however difficult or well high impossible unification would be.

But I cannot believe Sierra Madre schools would suffer in any way and actually believe that we would be able to enjoy vastly expanded educational facilities now denied to Sierra Madre pupils.

With this overwhelming probability of having still better schools, and the positive certainty of having them at a far lower tax cost than we would have under unification, even if such a hazardous adventure could succeed, I have come to the conclusion that annexation to Pasadena makes pretty good sense.

I COMPLIMENT the Sierra Madre Advisory Committee, of which I am a member, which has voted by a margin of 14 to 3 in favor of such annexation, from the standpoint of economy.

I am not, however, undertaking nor am I in any way authorized to speak for this committee, nor any other organization in Sierra Madre, of which I am a member. I speak only my own convictions.

But I must point out that if our action is delayed far into next year, that we run the risk of automatically assuming a liability on the new bond issue voted by Pasadena High School District, of which we are now a part, and of having our share of this indebtedness to pay off, deriving no benefit therefrom, should our chosen course thereafter be unification.

I would hate to think of having to help build a new high school and not being able to use it, and then setting out to build our own new high and junior high school buildings at such a cost that it would throttle Sierra Madre progress for years to come.

I BELIEVE the people of Sierra Madre should be proud of Pasadena's willingness, if such consent is given, for our annexation to their school district. It appears to me that it would be a mighty big step forward, with a very great deal to gain and nothing to be lost.

I believe the Sierra Madre taxpayers, as well as the Sierra Madre schools, deserve this consideration.

Very truly yours,
JOHN H. CURTIS.

Expansion Is Announced By Arcadia Music Mart

The Arcadia Music Mart is expanding their present location to include the stone building to the west of their present location at 21 E. Huntington Dr. This addition will house the piano and organ department, the stereo and TV department and the Mutual Ticket Agency.

Mel and Jean Pratt purchased a small music store in 1946, outgrew that location in a short time and moving to the north side of Huntington Dr., to more than double their space. It wasn't too long before this store became inadequate to house their growing pains and they moved to the two-story brick building at their present location. Even within this short space of time, it has been necessary to add on two times for the increasing needs of this progressive music business.

Teachers of all musical instruments are available at the Mart, teaching piano, organ, accordion, flute, saxophone, drums, trumpet, guitar and violin.

Mel and Jean feel much of the success has been due to their fine partners—Ben Course and Dick Smith, and the piano and organ manager, Bob Blackburn, and stereo-TV manager, Cliff Bridges.

Hartman Story

Sawtelle, coming to Sierra Madre on May 5, 1910.

IN SIERRA MADRE, F. H. Hartman purchased the drug store of W. E. Bechleheimer who preferred his mining and smelting interests to pharmaceuticals. Young Hartman was then a junior in high school but was even then serving his five-year apprenticeship as a pharmacist and with his father as mentor. This was the custom in those days.

An interesting sidelight is that the Hartman Pharmacy today is at the same location as when, but the former site contained an apartment as well as the drug store. The Hartmans occupied both. "Those days I slept in that building," remarks Mr. Hartman, "for we had our home in the same building as the pharmacy."

NEXT, Mr. Hartman attended the University of Southern California from which he was graduated in 1916. Because he was not yet 21, he was first granted a diploma as a registered assistant. Later when age qualified him he received his certificate as a full registered pharmacist.

He became his father's partner in 1917, the business being known as F. H. Hartman and son, and on Nov. 1, 1927, purchased the business from his father, the business becoming known as the Hartman Pharmacy.

Through the years, Mr. Hartman has assembled a collection of pharmaceutical devices that are interesting and of rare value.

engines to stir the admiration and ambition of the younger spectators.

THERE WILL be a float presented by the energetic Civic Club of Sierra Madre titled "Grand Ladies of the Golden West," that will be sure to attract plenty of attention.

In addition to the Caledonian Pipers Band, stirring music will come from the John Marshall Junior High School Band, the Duarte All-School Elementary Band, heading the Girls Drill Team of that school; the Black Forester German Band of Duarte, San Gabriel Mission High School Band and Ost's Accordion Band.

Equestrian judging for awards will be at the formation area prior to the parade. Awards may be picked up after the parade at the formation area.

Bands, majorettes or drill teams will be judged during the parade and should send a representative back to the judges' stand for awards.

Children will be judged at judges' stand and may pick up merchandise at the Music Shop after the parade.

Floats will be judged during parade and may pick up awards at judges' stand or later at Music Shop after parade. A representative should be sent back to the judges' stand.

Bless Our Mothers Dearly

Experts from Oedipus to Philip Wylie, by way of Edgar Guest, have said just about all that can be said about Mothers.

Coleridge classed them as "the holiest thing alive." Scottish James Kelly called them "matchless beast." A Yiddish proverb declares that since God could not be everywhere, He created Mothers. The Spanish hold that "an ounce of Mother is worth a ton of priest." And, of course, Edna Ferber asserts that "Mother Knows Best."

Surely Mother knows best the tribulations and we hope, the joys of life. In some cases she may turn into a Wylie-ish dominant Mom or a Freudian fixation may derange some of her progeny. But those are the misuses of life and when Mother's Day rolls around we like to think back to all the good things—the comfortings, the bright discoveries, the warm assurances, that wonderful strength and wisdom and that magic understanding that led Abraham Lincoln to say that "all that I am and hope to be I owe to my angel mother."

So, with the added thought that without Mothers where would Father be, may we say to them all—past, present and future: God Bless You Dearly.

Scouting – A Positive Force

Guest Editorial

By Keith H. Moses, A Father

In this, the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, it might serve us well as a community to pause and reflect on the ideals and purposes of the Scouting program.

What is Scouting? It certainly is not just a boys' club, nor is it a hiking club. Scouting is a "Way of Life"—an American Way, deeply embellished with the basic tenets of religion, national responsibility and personal character growth.

The aims of the Scouting program are greatly diversified. Self-reliance and independence are traits that are developed through the camping program and to the boy it is presented in the spirit of fun and hard work.

ANY BOY first entering the Scouting program rapidly ascertains that he has become part of a "team." It might be a Cub Den, or a Scout Patrol or an Explorer Unit—no matter which it is, the principles of democracy steadily appear before him.

Here is a sphere of influence in which his actions and ideas must be blended with other boys, because he is a part of the team. He really discovers that his actions, whether positive or negative, reflect not only on himself, but more importantly on his team.

EVERYBODY talks with concern about the problem of juvenile delinquency. Those directly in contact with Scouting over a period of years can testify from experience that the program offered by the Boy Scouts of America is one of the most effective methods of combating this problem.

Scouting offers every boy from age 8 to 18 the opportunity to be a member of a "gang." In this program: however, the "gang" is one which works steadily for the betterment of all—the individual, the community and the nation.

Today, in the 50th year of the Boy Scouts of America, more than 5,000,000 boys and adult leaders are registered in this program. The citizens of tomorrow are receiving an early education in the ways and means of promoting the welfare of our nation.

NO BETTER summary of the Boy Scout program is available than that evidenced by the Scout Oath: "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

Reapportionment Needed

Announcement that more than 500,000 Californians have signed petitions asking for an election on a proposal to reapportion the State Senate on an equitable basis between Southern and Northern California is encouraging.

It is distinctly encouraging because many Southern Californians are no longer content to sit by and permit senators from the sparsely populated counties in the north to conduct the affairs of the Senate as if it were their own private club.

At present there are 40 State Senators. The North with hundreds of thousands less population than the South, has 28-1/3 senators and the South 11-2/3. The proposed constitutional amendment fathered by Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, would split these 40 senators on a 20-20 basis.

AT THE LAST general election, Los Angeles County Senator Richard R. Richards drew 1,409,000 votes in Los Angeles County alone as against 1,470,000 polled for the 32 Senatorial districts north of the Tehachis.

Having been denied its proper representation in the Upper House, and since no legislation can follow without concurrence of both houses, Southern California truly has been placed on the political shelf—except to pay the major portion of the costs of state government.

If the water measure passes, Southern California will need Senate votes hundreds of times during the 25-year construction period to protect its present shaky rights to water as provided for in Senate Bill 1106. Water, like reapportionment, should be presented on its own separate merits. If there was ever a reason for reapportionment of the Senate, that reason is multiplied a hundredfold should the water bonds pass.

A REAL SUCCESS was the first annual dinner of the Friends of the Library at Woman's Clubhouse. Here we see, Mrs. Helen P. Loomis, president; Dr. Peter W. Fay, 400 Church Rd., Sierra Madre, assistant professor of history at Caltech, and principal speaker; Mrs. Charlotte Bush, dinner coordinator, and Dan R. Parker, former president and now program director.

Lee Shippey Says . . .

What Do You Think?

These rummage sales are wonderful. They had one at our church last week—I say "our" though most of my religion is in my wife's name—and the bargains were so fantastic they had to have policemen there to keep people from buying too much. Some persons wanted to sweep everything on a counter into a big carton or bag, practically sight unseen, sure that whatever was there would be worth several times what it would cost.

So they rigged me up with a tin star and a billy club to overawe greedy customers. But the only one I saw who got overawed was I.

THAT REMINDS me that when we moved from Sierra Madre to Del Mar, Father Smith, the Episcopal rector in Sierra Madre, told Father Middleton, the Episcopal rector in Del Mar, that Mrs. Shippey was a regular attendant at church. "How about her husband?" asked Father Middleton. "Oh, he's one of the most regular you ever saw. He regularly attends church every Christmas, Easter and Thanksgiving."

DON'T IMAGINE from the above that I do not admire and applaud all regular attendants at church. My wife goes to church much oftener than I go because she has a much bigger job there. She's trying to save me from perdition, while all I have to do is put in an occasional plea for her.

INCIDENTALLY, it looks as if we might hear a lot about religious issues in the coming campaign. And I'll bet that the most vehement and fiercely prejudiced arguments on both sides will be persons who rarely attend any church.

A LOT of persons are shocked to learn that Princess Margaret's wedding will cost the public $180,000—forgetting that some of our rigged television quizzes and payola frameups indirectly cost us a lot more than that.

WE ALL like Ike, personally, but we have to admit his judgment of men was somewhat faulty. He was convinced he "needed" Sherman Adams and he felt he had lost his right arm when he lost Mr. Dulles.

But how greatly and swiftly our policies have improved since Christian Herter came on the scene.

Your Congressman . . .

Economy Fools Our 'Gloomy Gusses'

By Edgar W. Hiestand
Representative, 21st District,
California

The "doom" prophets who began this year by measuring us for a big depression had better take their fingers out of their ears and listen to what's going on around them.

The "doom" they predicted still looks to me more like the "boom" of our vibrant economy. The "busting" they talked about turns out to be spring—and it's really busting!—out all over.

Washington has its lines all right, but they're not relief lines. Indeed not—we have long lines of visitors streaming through the Capitol—Supreme Court—Washington Monument—Smithsonian Institute—Lincoln Memorial—and Mount Vernon.

A good sign. (And, we're glad to welcome them.) The large number of people vacationing—traveling to Washington from all parts of the United States, sight-seeing and visiting historical places—are a good barometer of our prosperity.

A LOOK at the most recent figures confirms this. Frequently you hear our economists refer to the "Gross National Product." This is the dollar value of all goods and services, expenditures and savings produced in the United States during the year.

Last year was an all-time record year—in spite of the prolonged steel strike. Our Gross National Product for the year 1959 was $479.5 billion.

Now, we have the statistics for the first three months of this year, and, I'm sorry to disappoint the Gloomy Gusses, but it looks as though we're going to set a new record. Instead of a decline, our rate of production and consumption is still climbing—at a rate past the $500 billion mark, but the best part of this picture is that the growth is smooth and steady, not a speculative bubble.

Even farming is getting to be bigger business than manufacturing, if you measure it on the basis of the capital investment per worker. The average investment per worker in manufacturing is $15,300, but now the average investment per farming worker is $20,700. In the highly mechanized corn belt this average investment is much, much higher—$112,000 per worker.

BUT, WHAT effect has this had on our cost of living? Again the news is good.

While the first quarter statistics show more people earning more wages than ever before in our history, up more than $9 billion over the highest period last year, the cost of living is still at about the same rate as it was last October.

And the statistics further show how wrong some of our political orators have been about the number of people unemployed.

There were actually half a million fewer people unemployed during the first three months of 1960 than there were during the same period of 1959. Furthermore, the 1960 totals included the unemployed workers in our two new states, Alaska and Hawaii, which were not included in the 1959 figures.

And, perhaps the best news of all to many people is that the Bureau of Internal Revenue estimates that the vast majority of our citizens are scheduled to receive a refund rather than owing additional tax—the average is more than $200.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Mr. Herwig:
I was immensely pleased with the success of the first Friends of the Library dinner. Thank you again for your splendid publicity. The success of a community affair depends a great deal on good coverage with which you were more than generous.

—Charlotte Bush

Dear Mr. Herwig:
For several years I passed by Sierra Madre Hospital afoot and a wheel and thanked my lucky stars to be on the outside looking in. My luck finally ran out. I arrived within its portals recently in the state of a wilted vegetable. A two-week's sojourn became a matter of life or death.

It was a revelation. The good doctors who practice here, the devoted staff and inspired cooks who serve here, banish the terrors of ill health and reduce suffering to a minimum. No longer do I pass by in fear and trembling, but in humble admiration of the kind people who staff this establishment. They make it an excellent local institution by maintaining a high standard of "livability" for guests in less than perfect health.

—K. Fritz Schumacher

Dear Editor:

In answer to Dr. Dores Sharpe's eloquent endorsement of Rudd Brown I would like to add that I listened and talked to Mrs. Brown for three hours at a small informal meeting. I found her lovely, charming and a delightful speaker. I learned a great deal about her mother's career in Congress and the diplomatic service and even more about her husband, Dr. Harrison Brown's liberal views.

I learned that she was taken abroad at an early age and has lived most of her life outside the United States until 1951 when she and Dr. Brown settled here, and that since that time they have spent an additional two years abroad.

I listened while she expressed a good many liberal views of her own that sounded like a Welfare State Utopia, including such statements as "Walter Reuther is a kind and intelligent man." She was critical of Rep. Hiestand's votes against Social Security, federal aid to schools, and foreign aid, saying they were not in the best interests of his constituents.

Well, I'm one of his constituents and I believe he did cast his votes in the best interests of the people of the 21st Congressional District.

I'll admit I've not had the international experience of Mrs. Brown, but I've had plenty of experience as a taxpayer.

Dr. Sharpe said Rep. Hiestand thinks in terms of the 19th Century. Well, I'm a voter and a mother who believes Mr. Hiestand is doing his best to fight inflation and infiltration to preserve a birthright of freedom from the Welfare State for my children in the 20th and 21st Centuries.

—Mrs. George Wenger.

On the Trails . . .

What About a Scoutmaster's Day

It was an impressive sight standing on the slope near Chantry Flats watching the boys of Sierra Madre Scout Troop 373 streaming down the Sturtevant Trail. With neat packs on their backs they hiked along, over a famous old trail that many of their fathers had trod before them.

Patrol leader Bruce Lindsay was leading the group to their camp at Spruce Grove, a step on the Silver Moccasin, Scoutmaster Ernie Patterson and Bill Waite bringing up the rear watching for those who would lag behind and need to rest by the trail side.

With rather a lump in my throat I watched them through binoculars, until, in Indian file, they vanished one by one into the canyon shadows. And I was touched with the often little appreciated, yet true value of the scoutmaster.

Ernie Patterson, former paratrooper, had in his care our most precious possessions, the children of Sierra Madre. For many of the boys it was the first overnight trip into the mountain vastness, and Ernie would be required to be both doctor and nurse and teacher in the ways of the wild hills.

At dusk Indians from the Order of the Arrow walked through the grounds gathering up the boys. More than 200 clean cut Scouts in trim uniforms gathered around their campfires. Several Sierra Madreans were honored by being taken into the Order. Among the adults were Ernie Smith, Ernie Patterson and Bill Newberry, a scoutmaster for 22 years.

PERHAPS the hardest thing to combat and the most discouraging for the scoutmaster is the lack of parent interest and cooperation. I couldn't help but notice a young Scout who left the campfire to ask his patrol "Dad" Lester Anthony if he had seen his father.

Lester patted the boy on the head and gently told him no. If the parents could have seen the hurt look in the eyes of this crestfallen boy, I feel sure they would have made every effort to be there.

A scoutmaster is a man of strength, of quiet courage and patience. He has a sympathetic understanding of the problems of the young. He works for the love of our youth and guiding their steps in the right direction.

As Bill Newberry puts it, "Boys all want a sense of belonging to a group. As long as I can keep my Scout troop going they have a group with a purpose, and how much better it is to have a Scout troop than a gang."

While it is true that during my 22 years as a scoutmaster I have had some disappointments and also some expenses, I wouldn't trade those years, for I know in my heart I have always done my best for the Scouts, and if I have helped even one boy in his upward climb, I feel it has been worth it."

As Scouts grow up and follow life's trail they never forget their scoutmasters and all the good they have taught them. With different days set aside for Pioneer Days, Community Breakfast, it seems to me there should be a Scoutmasters' Day to honor these men who give so much for their community. Few are more deserving.

Lincoln Ellsworth, explorer and the first man to fly over the South Pole, was a recent visitor in Sierra Madre, but because he rides street cars and has a particular aversion to automobiles, not many Sierra Madreans knew he was in town.

Ellsworth lives in Los Angeles and since his hobby is walking, often takes the Pacific Electric to Sierra Madre and hikes up the Mt. Wilson Trail.

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 4, 1950—Voters go to the polls Tuesday, May 9 to decide on a school bond proposal which would provide four additional classrooms to the city schools. The $86,000 issue requires a two-thirds majority for passage.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 5, 1955—People who hold Sierra Madre Public Library books too long, meaning just about everybody, may now enjoy the luxury of so doing without paying a fine—until May 23. That's because the library will be closed Friday, May 6 until Monday, May 23, while moving into the new building at 440 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. Miss Lulu Moore, librarian, has asked that patrons hold all books during that period, regardless of customary deadlines.

Mrs. P. R. Woodworth Tuesday evening was elected the 1950 president of the Coordinating Council. She will succeed John Conzelman. Elected vice president was Harry Eder. Other new officers are Mrs. Sam Perloff, recording secretary; Mrs. James B. Gentry, corresponding secretary, and John Wilhite, treasurer.

Rev. Hesse Will Discuss Mother's Day

"Loving from the Heart" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Armin Hesse in the 10:30 o'clock service of Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr. In introducing this subject, the local pastor said: "In this day of schedules, we seem to do our loving according to the calendar rather than from the heart. Mother's Day provides us with the opportunity to investigate our motives."

Holy Communion will be celebrated by the congregation in the Mother's Day service. In the Midweek Bible Hour next Wednesday evening at 7:30, the study group will discuss some of the special gifts of the Holy Spirit, especially the gift of speaking in tongues according to 1 Corinthians 14. The midweek discussion hour is open to all who wish to know the Holy Scriptures better.

RETURNING from the five-day sessions of Southern California District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, held last week in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium, the delegates of Faith Lutheran Church presented a summarized report to the members of the church last Sunday morning. The official delegation of the church included Pastor Armin Hesse, Messrs. Kenneth Bock and Neal Ladwig. They reported that a total of 468 lay-delegates, pastors and teachers of the church attended the daily sessions, plus a number of daily guests and visitors. These represented 165 congregations in the Southern California area.

The Rev. Mr. Hesse was elected to serve a second term as one of the district vice-presidents.

Vehicle Code Much Larger Than in 1927

The automobile has made vast changes in our economic and political world. But nowhere is this more manifest than in the size of the State Vehicle Code.

Sierra Madre Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan has the code for 1927, or 33 years ago, containing 115 small pages. Comparatively, the 1959 code, printed incidentally in St. Paul, Minn., and not in California, contains 553 bulky pages, is three times as large.

The speed limit on the open road in 1927 was 40 miles an hour—today it is 65.

Yessireebub, the world do move, especially the California world.

Lanternman at Oakland Hearing

$900 Given Ball League By Auxiliary

With the Women's Auxiliary of the Little League Association and their men folk on the job, baseball's opening ceremonies last Saturday at Heasley Field were a decided success.

Perhaps the most impressive presentation and one of which the Auxiliary was extremely happy and proud to present was a check for $900 given to Bill Coulson, president of the Little League Association.

Holder of the lucky ticket in the drawing and thus recipient of four box seat tickets to the Los Angeles Dodger game of his choice was Robert Walker of 401 Rancho Rd., Arcadia.

PRIZES WERE awarded the following boys for their part in selling the most tickets: Jim Nickelloff, who sold the most tickets, was given two box seats to a Dodger game. Bobbie Treder, who almost tied Jim in ticket sales, was awarded a duplicate prize. Tom Hazelhurst was the Minor League player who sold most tickets and was awarded one box seat ticket to a Coliseum game.

The team selling the most tickets was the Dodger team, and for their efforts they will enjoy a swimming party through the courtesy of the Audrey Smith Swim School in Arcadia this coming Saturday. Joining the Dodger team will be four boys who sold an outstanding number of tickets. These boys are Ken Aage, John Howell, Chuck Hartman and Jack McRoberts.

Dr. Davidson joined the Caltech staff in 1946 and became full professor in 1957.

Mrs. Wright Plans Home For Aged Folk

With the granting of a use permit last Friday, it was revealed that a widely known Sierra Madre resident, Mrs. Robert E. Wright, has been named president of the St. Luke's Manor Development retirement home in Monrovia.

Mrs. Wright, who is now serving as vice chairman of the Sierra Madre Planning Commission, has been a Sierra Madre resident since 1934.

The 100-unit, two-story structure is to be erected on a two and one-half acre site at 110 N. Mountain Ave. The design has been carefully planned for comfort and requirements of persons of advanced years, according to Mrs. Wright.

EVENTUALLY the home will revert to St. Luke's Episcopal Church. This was the church Mrs. Wright attended as a young girl, and until she moved away from Monrovia. At present there is only one other Episcopal-operated home for the aged in Southern California.

The first unit of the new Retirement Home is expected to be open this fall.

Third Annual Studios Visit For May 15

The chance to visit artists' studios comes again with the Third Annual Art Tour sponsored by the exhibits committee of the Friends of the Sierra Madre Public Library. The tour will be on May 15 from 1 to 4 p.m.

The tour will be quite varied this time, with studios of painters, of a sculptor, potter, furniture designer, and stained glass and glass collage designers. The painters are: Walter Askin at his own studio in South Pasadena, and the faculty of the Pasadena School of Fine Arts: Frode Dann, Katherine Skeele Dann, Ejnar Hansen, Joseph Mugnaini, Milford Zornes, Bentley Schaad, Jonathan Scott, Jae Carmichael, Don Turner, Paul Darrow and Leonard Edmondson showing in the school.

AT THE Designers Workshop in Pasadena the studios of Joan Harness, potter; Frank Rohloff, furniture designer, and Aileen Rohloff, glass collage designer, will be open. Across from the Designers Workshop is the Wallis-Wiley Stained Glass Studio showing the work of John Wallis, Howard Whalen's sculpture will be seen in his studio in Sierra Madre.

The tickets ($1.50) will be available at all the studios on the day of the tour, May 15, Sunday. The Pasadena School of Fine Arts, a convenient place to start the tour, is located at 314 S. Mentor Ave., Pasadena. Proceeds from the tour are used for the Annual Purchase prize sponsored by the Friends of the Library awarded to some artist in the area.
